InterCham Event - Organized by The Canadian Chamber of Commerce in Hong Kong

Seminar: “The Art of Networking”

Date: Thursday, 20 June 2013
Time: 12:30 pm to 2:00 pm
Venue: The Canadian Chamber of Commerce in Hong Kong, 1301 Kinwick Centre, 32 Hollywood Road, Central, Hong Kong.

About the Event:
In March, The Hong Kong Institute of Etiquette presented The Art of Networking: Building Relationships Through Effective Conversation and the session was received with an immediate sell out. Now this popular workshop is back, emphasizing how networking generates business and the importance of training staff in the art of networking. This course teaches how to best present oneself on behalf of an organization through techniques to approach people, ask the right questions and continue the conversation in successful follow-up that generates business. Whether beginners or experienced networkers, participants will gain tips, techniques, and solutions to tricky situations.

Topics covered include:
1. Entering the Room with an Effective First Impression
2. Introducing Oneself
3. The Art of Conversation
4. Closing the Conversation with Results and Following Up on Business Opportunities

Speaker: Kristine Stewart
Kristine Stewart of the Hong Kong Institute of Etiquette, has worked with businesses and individuals since 2009 to provide the soft skills necessary to drive results through communication and partnerships in the workplace. Kristine Stewart is an internationally trained etiquette consultant, providing courses in Hong Kong, mainland China, and overseas. She has received certification from Paris and London, and has studied under globally recognized etiquette leader, Tamiko Zablith.
